

100th Training Division (Leader Development)

Provides an education, training, and experience framework to develop Leaders to succeed

Where Kentucky can help increase your organization's readiness

- Support Fort Knox's efforts to modernize, maintain, and increase training areas and facilities which support our operations and our Soldiers, Civilians, and their families.

How Kentucky can help your personnel and their families

- Reduce the state tax impact on current and retired Soldiers and their families;
- Create and improve programs which support current and retired Soldiers and their families;

- The 100th Training Division employs 201 Full-time Military and Civilians represents approximately $16 million in wages
- Trains nearly 13,000 Soldiers and Civilians at Fort Knox annually and over 18,000 nationwide from all components

- The 100th Training Division has a long and distinguished history in the Commonwealth from WWI and WWII to the present. Three Soldiers from the Division were awarded the Medal of Honor.
- Since WWII, the Division has been a vital part of the nation's efforts to train and prepare for war.

Who We Are

100th Training Division (LD) Unit Locations

